

Hawaiian Lunch...

Col. Andrew S. Dichter, 99th Air Base Wing commander, above, addressed the gathering, praising the volunteers for their work. At right and below, volunteers and their guests, many attired in Hawaiian-inspired dress, enjoy the lavish spread supplied for the event. Dancers, left and below, entertained the crowd following the luncheon.

By Ms. Susan McCarty
AWFC Public Affairs

A Hawaiian-inspired feast, complete with decorations, island landscape videos and a Hawaiian band and dancers were part of the celebration recently at the Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon held at the Nellis Officers' Club. More than 200 people attended the event, sponsored by the Family Support Center and held annually in recognition of the efforts of the more than 800 people who give of themselves every day in order to help Team Nellis members.

Photos by Staff Sgt. Ed Scott

